Super Lawyers' objective is to create a credible, comprehensive, and diverse listing of outstanding attorneys that can be used as a resource for businesses and consumers searching for legal counsel.

Super Lawyers rates outstanding lawyers from more than 70 practice areas who have attained a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. The patented selection process is multi-phased and includes independent third-party research, peer nominations, and peer evaluations. Each candidate is evaluated on 12 indicators of peer recognition and professional achievement. Less than five percent of the lawyers in the state are named to Super Lawyers.

Rising Stars are selected following the same process, but a candidate must be either 40 years old or younger or must have been in practice for 10 years or less. In Illinois, no more than 2.5 percent of lawyers are named to the Rising Stars list.
